WHY ALL THE EXCITEMENT?

The reason is simple: The diverse terroir, with warm days and cool nights, is ideally suited to producing lush, full-bodied and distinctive Cabernet Sauvignon. In fact, more Cabernet Sauvignon is grown in Paso Robles than any other varietal.

HORSEPLAY CABERNET SAUVIGNON captures all the natural gifts of the Paso Robles wine region in the bottle.

Like the Knight — the only chess piece free to move in any direction on the chessboard — the award-winning Winemaker Nancy Walker is free to take advantage of the region's diversity and microclimates. Nancy has worked in the appellation for many years and has a deep knowledge of the vineyards of the region. Her top selections are reserved for blending Horseplay. The result is a wine brimming with bold fruit, a round, rich mouthfeel and firm, smooth tannins. The label's Knight and chessboard symbolize Walker's deliberate yet nimble winemaking philosophy.
