

2016

.....

Single Vineyard | Huckleberry Snodgrass

PINOT NOIR

Wine Spectator

Offering creamy richness to the dark fruit and Asian spice flavors, this plump style is broad and open-textured. Hints of espresso show on the finish, with dark chocolate accents.

— Kim Marcus

April 2020 Issue

Cherry Pie wines are made from the finest single vineyards in small, micro-fermented lots. Inspired by a walk through the famous Stanly Ranch Vineyard in Carneros, visionary winemaker Jayson Woodbridge was struck with the concept of utilizing his artisan, micro-winemaking approach to uniquely represent the Pinot Noir varietal.