2018 Chardonnay, Russian River Valley

PLATINUM SERIES

Beautiful stone-fruit flavors that manage to be rich and refreshing at the same time. A complex bouquet of ripe nectarine, green apple, tropical pineapple, and apricot opens up to fresh white peach framed by classic flavors of crème brûlée, lush vanilla bean and well-integrated, toasty oak. An elegant creamy, lingering finish balanced by a firm underpinning of acidity.

Windsor Recommends

Serve this refreshing white wine chilled on a warm spring or summer day while you lounge on the deck or patio. Hosting a dinner party? The bright, yet balanced acidity makes a wonderful complement to crowd favorites like roast lemon chicken or grilled halibut.

If there was only one word you could use to describe the key influence on the regional growing conditions, it would certainly be “fog.” The vines soak up the afternoon sun, which brings the grapes along gradually toward maturity. In the mornings and evenings there is a cool veil of coastal fog, which rolls in from the Pacific Ocean located just a few miles away. This fog keeps the grape’s natural acidity bright and extends the growing season often by as much as 15 - 20% over neighboring regions thus giving the grapes the all-important hang-time they need to develop peak flavor maturity.
