Windsor Recommends

This is a wine you're sure to love in warmer weather. This classic example of Pinot Grigio is perfect for a picnic in the park with a spread of your favorite gourmet cheeses, crackers and crusty French bread or a nice, warm bowl of Clam Chowder. Take to your favorite hostess as a gift with a custom label just for her, or personalize for a crowd-pleasing wine to serve at your next get together.

Sourced from prestigious vineyards throughout California; 34% Arroyo Seco (Central Coast) 66% Mokelumne River (Central Valley). The 2019 California winegrape harvest played out perfectly across the state. The growing season was long with moderate temperatures throughout the spring and summer months allowing fruit to mature slowly without heat stress. These classic strong and steady growing conditions coupled with cooler temperatures yielded exceptional quality fruit throughout the state in 2019.
