2014 PINOT NOIR

Russian River Valley, Platinum Series

TASTING NOTES

Multi-layered and a shade deeper and richer than the Sonoma County Pinot Noir, enticing aromas of dried cherry, ripe strawberries and vanilla bean anticipate lush, concentrated red-fruit flavors infused with notes of tobacco, baker's chocolate and gentle spice. Silky smooth with a long, satisfying finish.

VINEYARD & VINTAGE

The 2014 year brought moderately warm temperatures to the Russian River Valley area, located in the heart of Sonoma County. By midsummer, the combination of warm daytime temperatures and cool coastal fog helped balance the development of sugars, producing rich complex flavors and aromatics in the wine creating a spectacular & highly sought after vintage.

SERVE

Pinot Noir is one of the most food-friendly wines around, and this Russian River Valley Pinot is no exception. Serve alongside an elegant meal of grilled pomegranate glazed lamb chops and mixed vegetables or pair with a spring brunch that includes roast ham and a bacon gruyere quiche.

PAIR

Poultry: Smoked turkey, roasted duck and other game birds
Meats: Roast pork loin with cherries, grilled lamb chops, pan-seared veal
Seafood: Grilled salmon, swordfish with Pinot Noir reduction and other "steaky" fish
